

Children's Garden

Existing Site and Conditions

FOXGLENN PARK, FLAGSTAFF, AZ

Existing Site and Conditions

FUTURE GATHERING SPACE – LOOKING NORTH TOWARDS MT. ELDEN & SAN FRANCISCO PEAKS

Existing Site and Conditions

FUTURE GATHERING SPACE - LOOKING SOUTH WITH SOCCER FIELD BEYOND

Existing Site and Conditions

EXISTING EXAMPLES OF IMAGINATIVE PLAY ACTIVITIES ON SITE

Guiding Principles for Children's Garden

GOALS/OBJECTIVES:

- Inspiring
- Place of reflection & remembrance
- In concert with native landscape
- Place of play & imagination
- Whimsical
- Spiritual connection (non-religious based)
- Can change and be added to over time
- Stands the 50 year test
- Resistant to elements, vandalism, etc.
- Can be replaced if damaged without significant cost
- Meet City requirements & be easily maintained

DESIRED FEATURES/ELEMENTS

- Gateway Element
- Gathering space (20-25 people)
- Planters
- Seating
- Childrens names
- Places for Sponsors
- Play elements (active & fantasy)
- Pathways
- Stars
- Visible from other areas of park
- Colorful

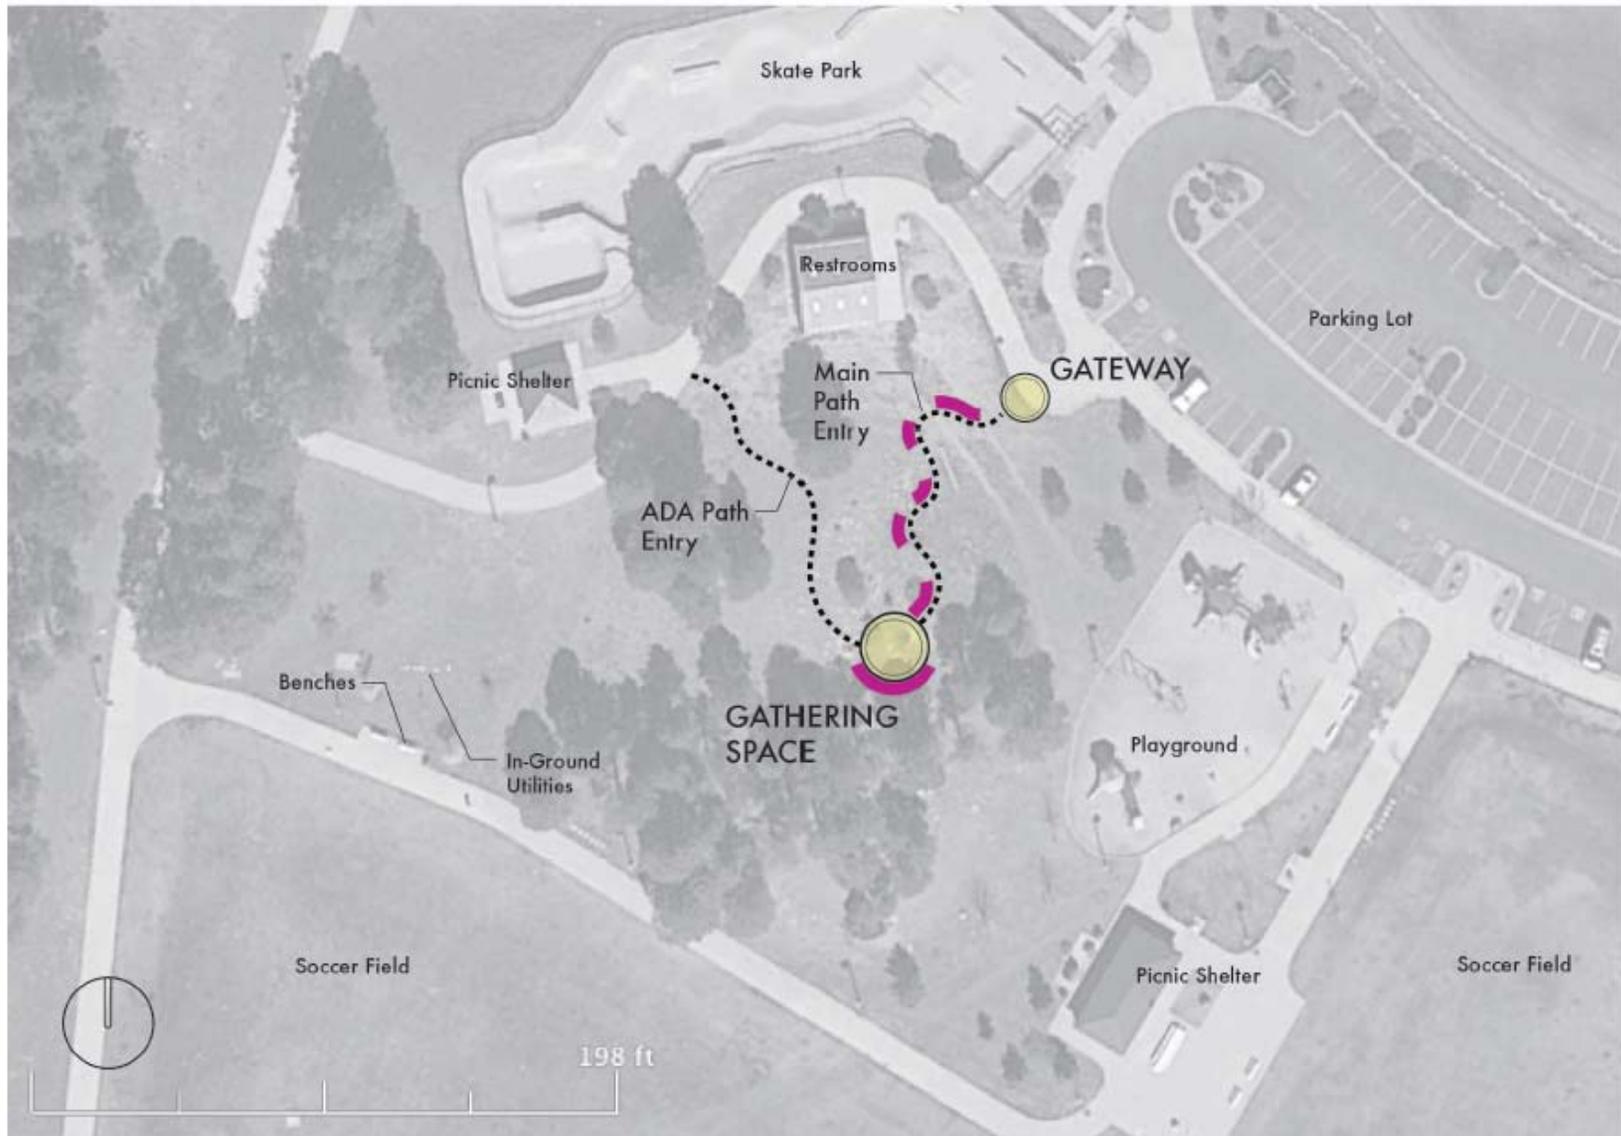

Ribbon-like Forms Served as Design Inspiration for the Garden

The Ribbon
(of love)

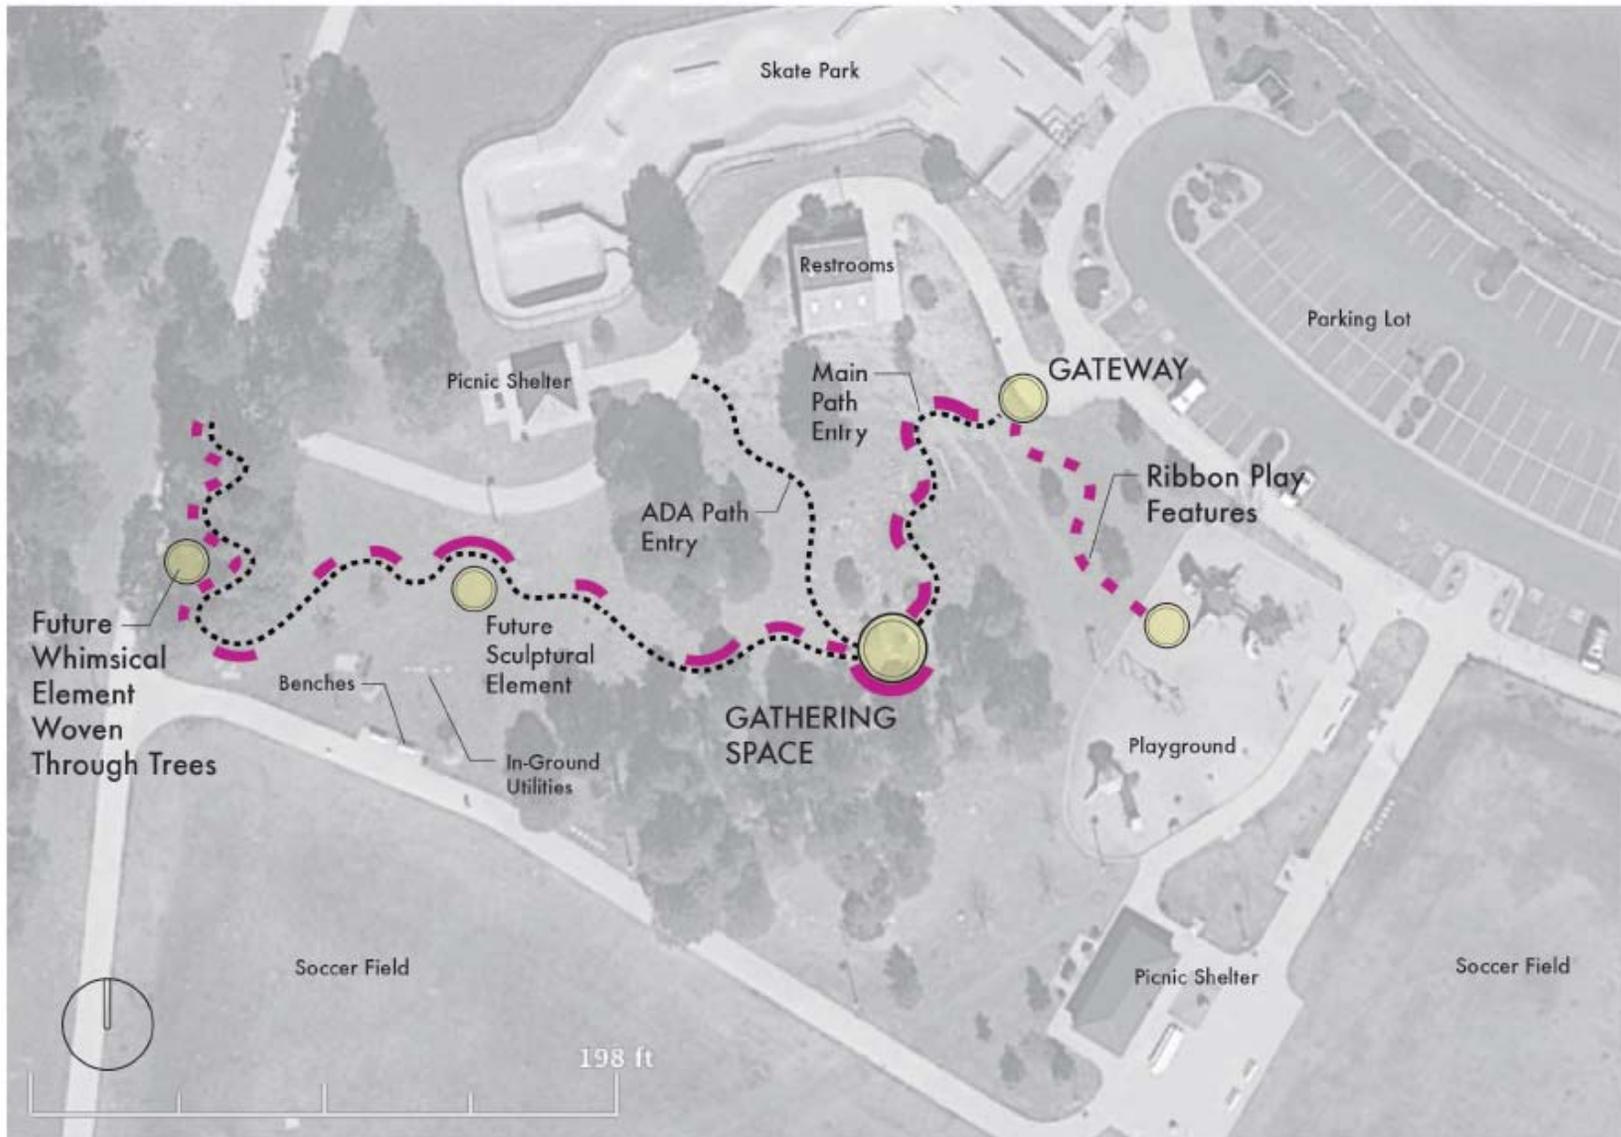

The Children's Garden is envisioned to be an extension of the existing landscape. Similar to a ribbon in form, the design for garden will undulate, embrace and weave within the native Kaibab Limestone, topography and groves of Ponderosa Pine trees that characterize the site.

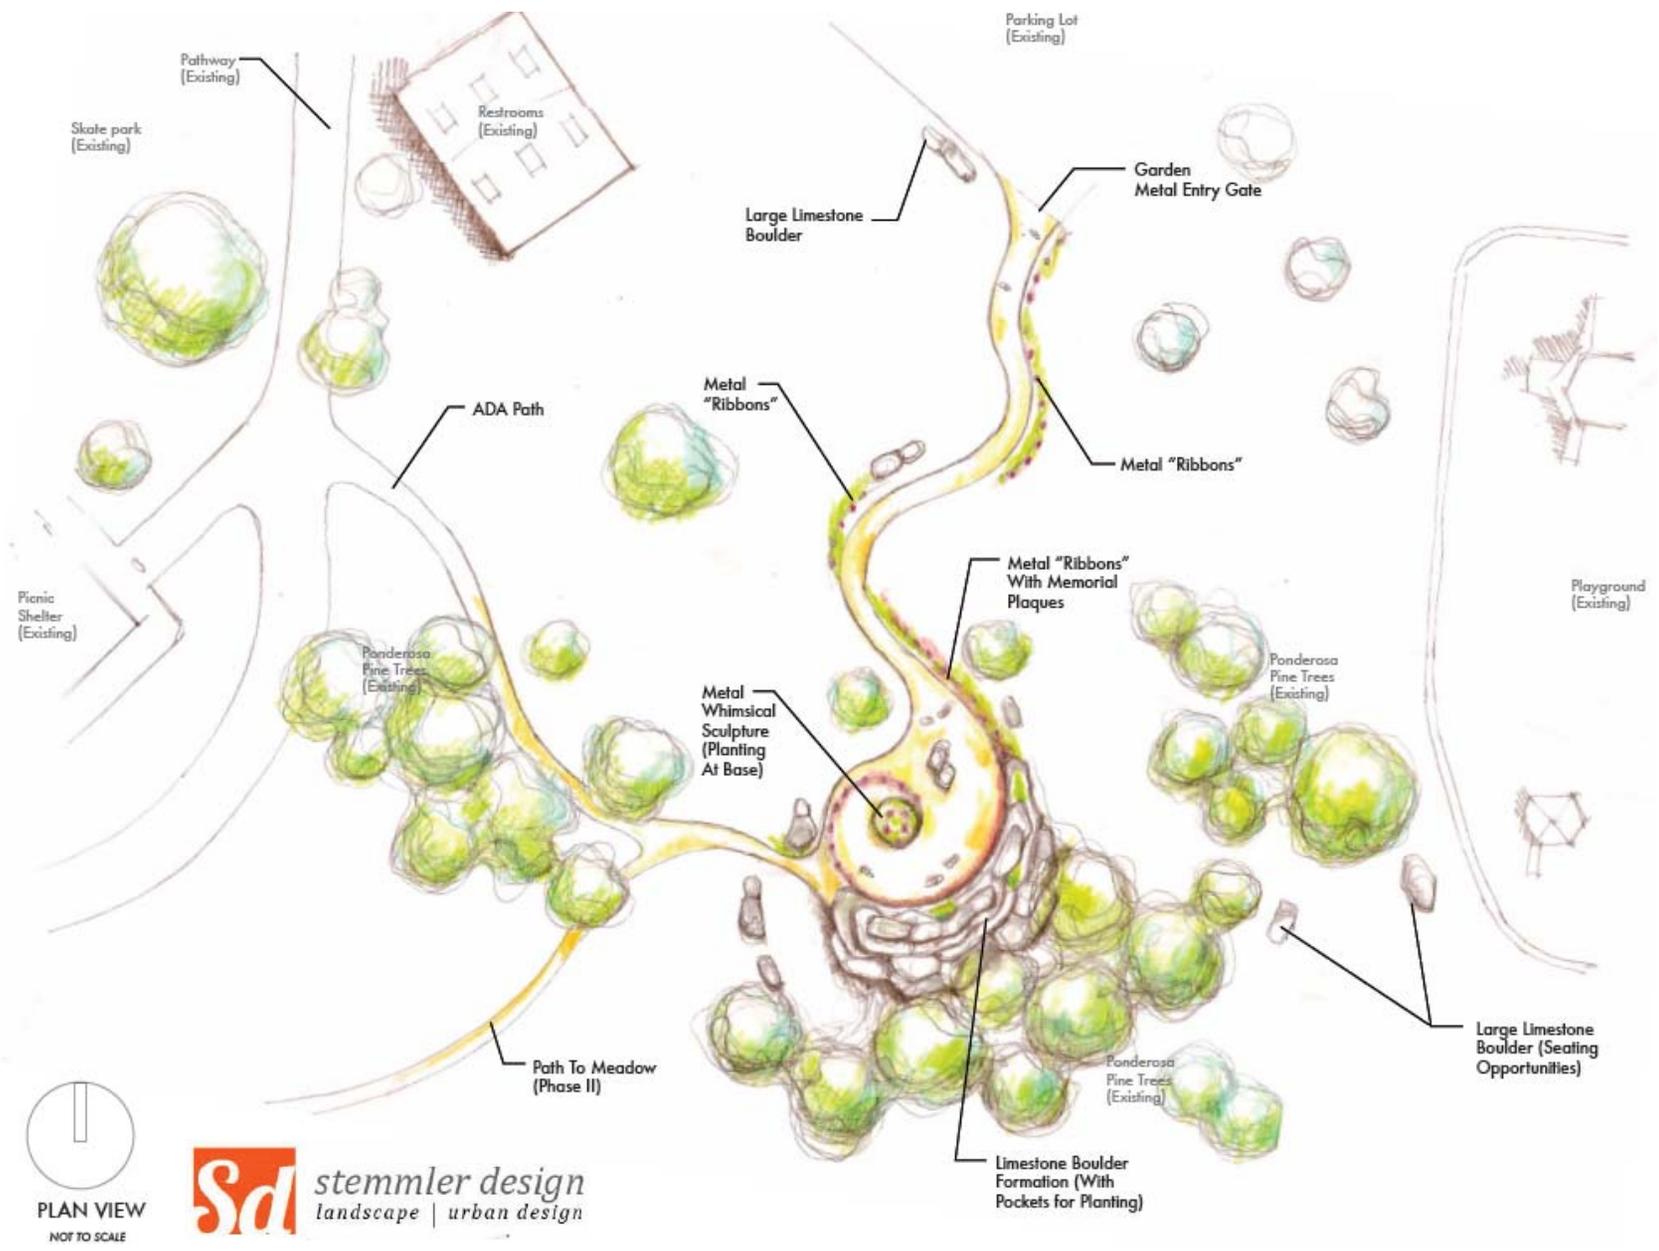

Children's Garden Aerial View – Phase I

Children's Garden Aerial View – Phase II

Children's Garden Aerial View – Phase I

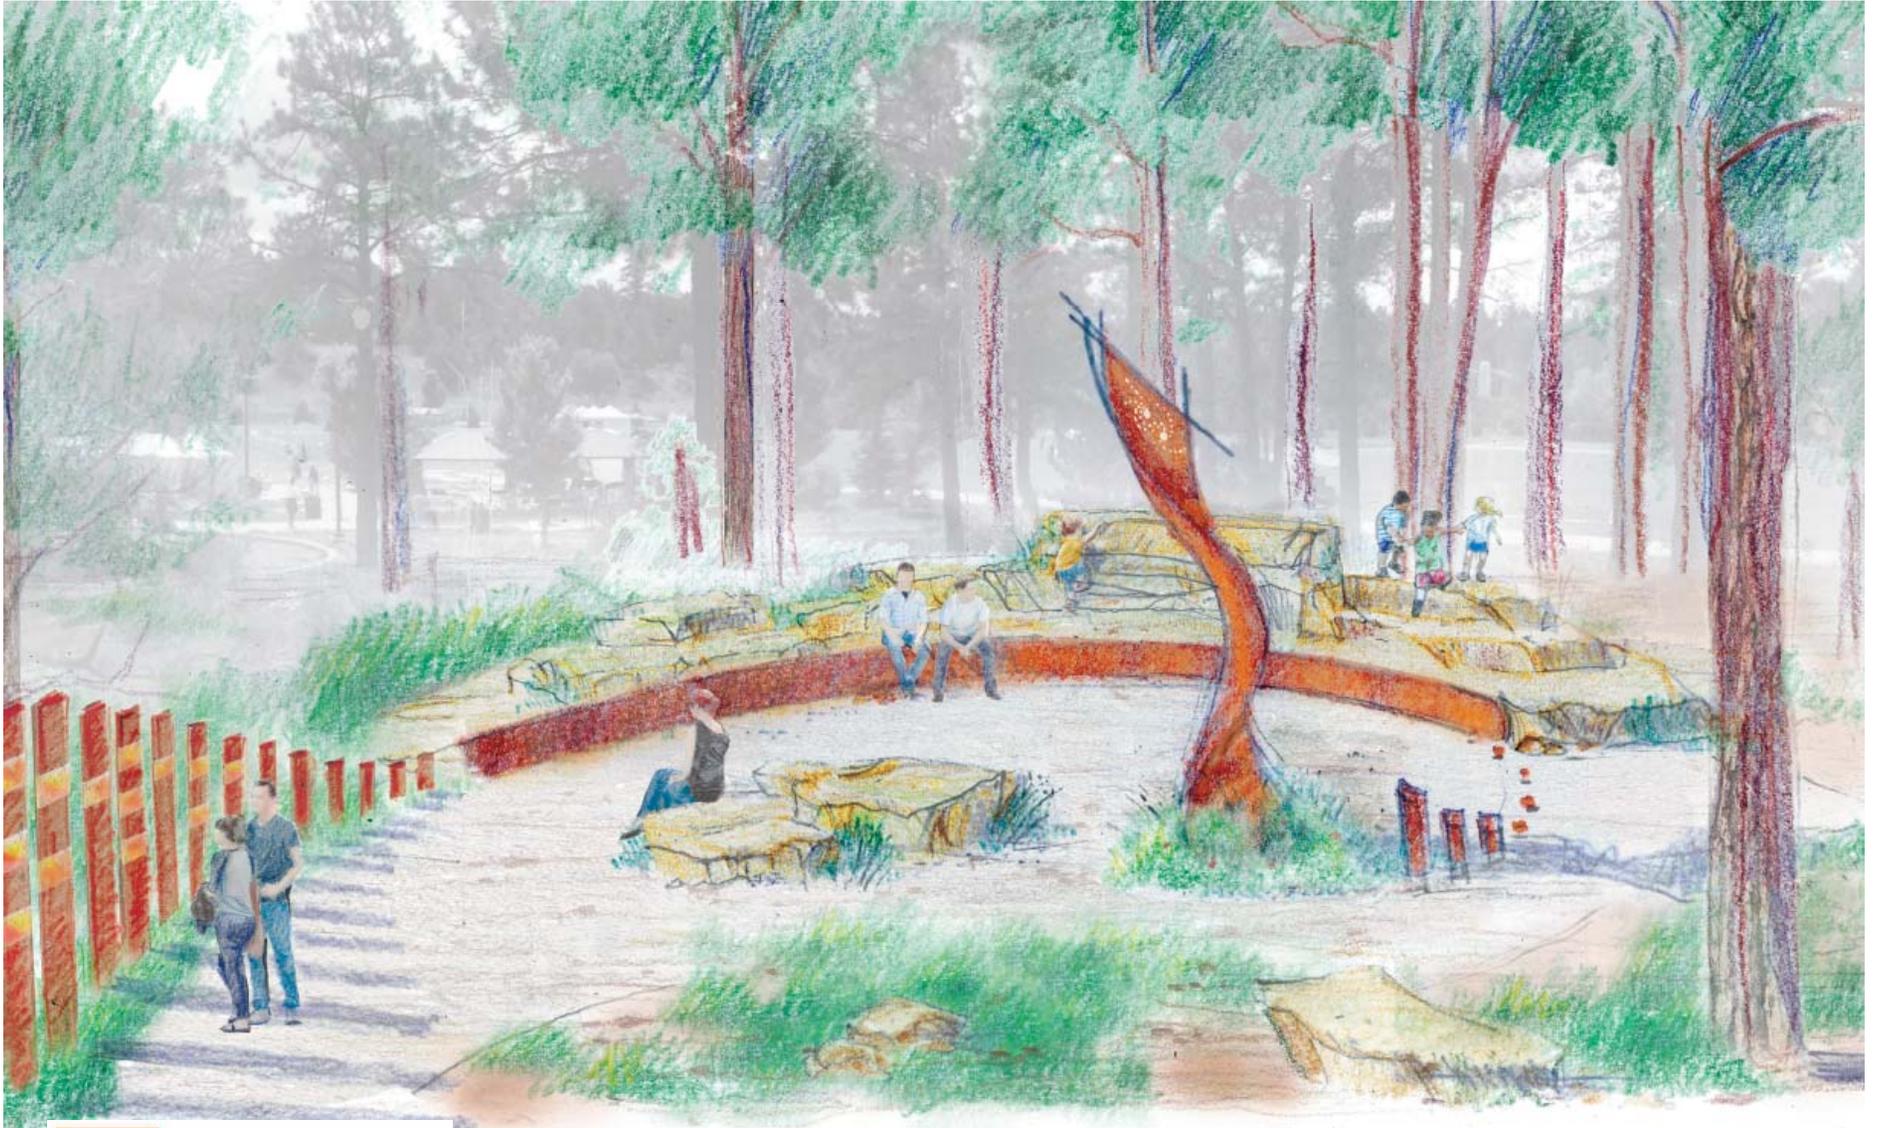

Children's Garden Aerial View – Phase I

Perspective of Garden Entry Path

Perspective of Gathering Space

One Sculpture at the Heart

THE PINNACLE

THE CELEBRATION

THE RELEASE

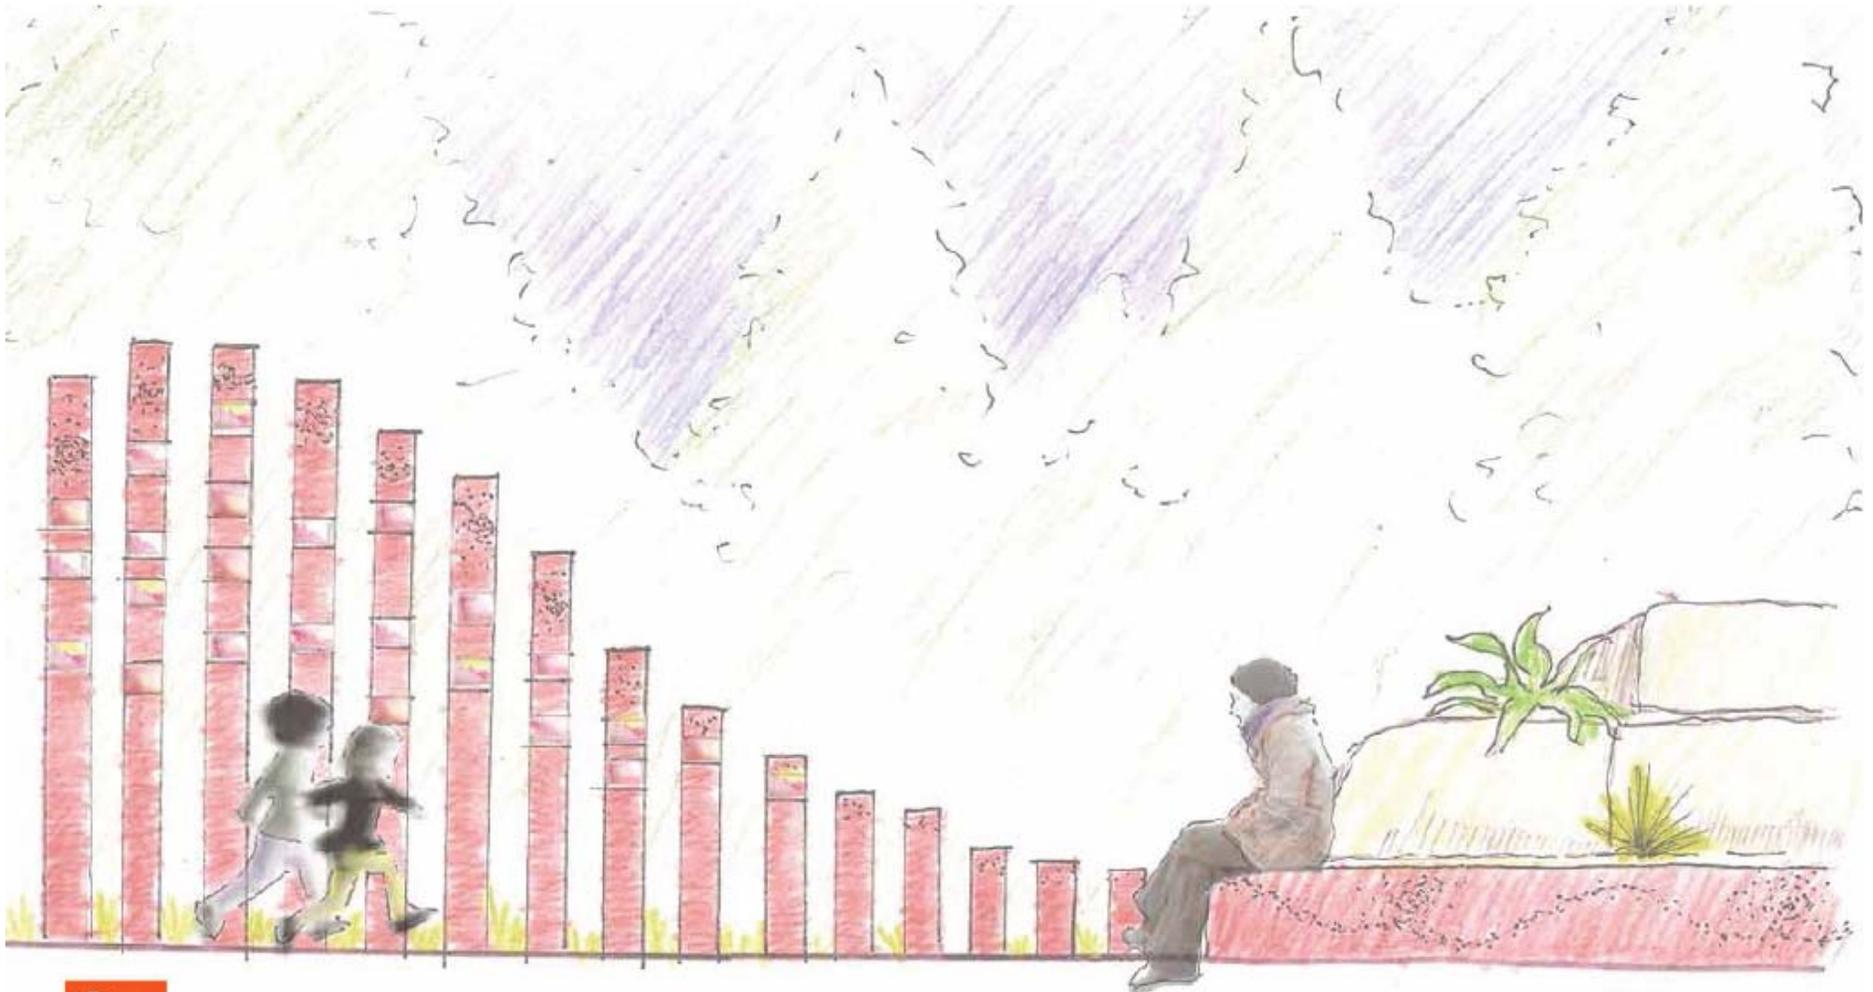

One Sculpture at the Heart

One Sculpture at the Heart

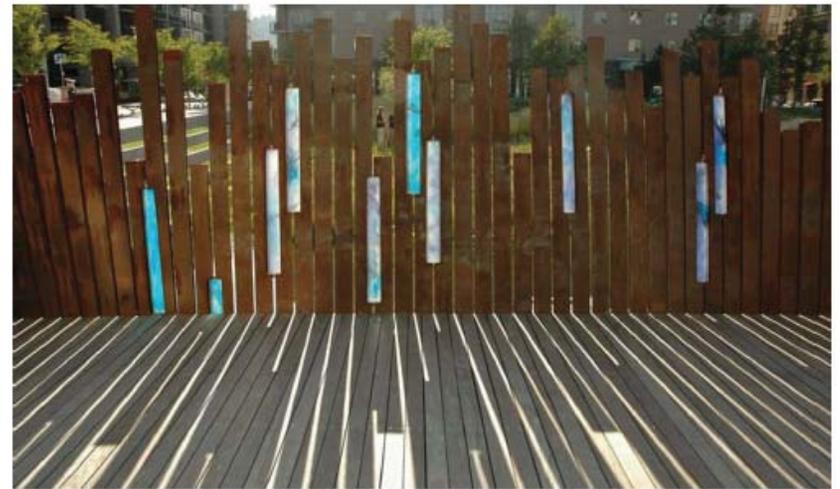

Perspective of Memorial Plaques at Gathering Space

Perspective of Stone Formation at Gathering Space

Precedent Images that Served as Design Inspiration for Children's Garden Ribbon

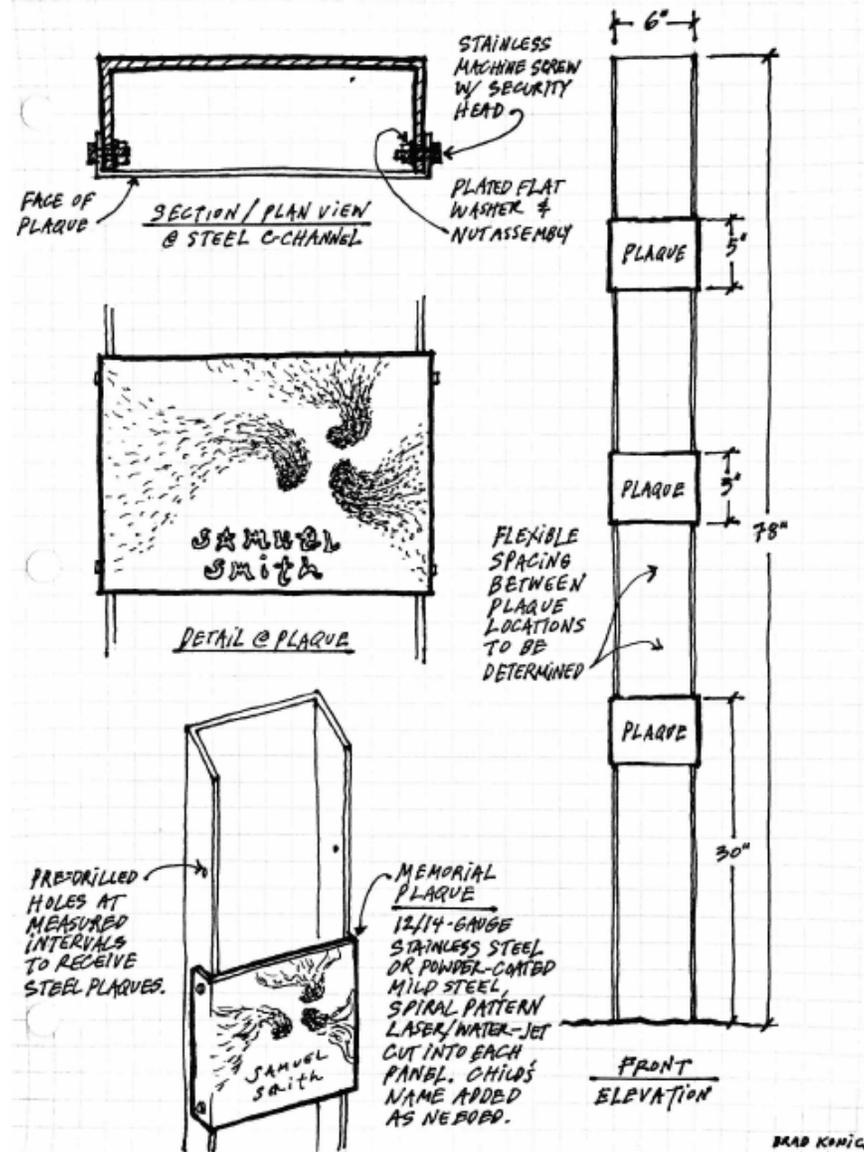

Precedent Images that Served as Design Inspiration for Children's Garden Ribbon

Concept Design for Memorial Plaques

MEMORIAL PLAQUES & STEEL RIBBON - OPTION ONE

Children's Garden

